

2002 KENTUCKY CRUSHED STONE ASSOCIATION
SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

Vocational/Technical - $1,000.00

Amanda Gayle Johnson of Brownsville. Amanda's father Charles Johnson works at Rinker Materials. Amanda is pursuing a degree in business and graphic technology at Bowling Green Technical School.

Associate Degree - First Year - $1,500.00

Bridgette Edwards of Benton. Bridgette's father Ben Edwards works at Vulcan Materials Company–Reed Quarry. Bridgette is pursuing a degree as a radiological technologist at West Kentucky Technical College. She volunteers time at the Marshall County Hospital, working in the radiology department.

Associate Degree – Second Year - $1,500.00

Brandon Snow of Ledbetter. Brandon's father Luther Snow works at Vulcan Materials Company-Reed Quarry. Brandon is pursuing a degree in electronic engineering. In high school he was involved in band, basketball, baseball, Students Taking a Responsible Stand (STARS), Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and worked as an office assistant.

Bachelor Degree – Freshman - $1,500.00

James Bryant of Winchester. James' mother Terry Bryant works at Wayne Supply Company. James is pursuing a masters degree in electrical engineering with a desire to design small machines for a company such as General Electric. He has been active on the school academic team, tennis team and in the Future Business Leaders Club. He has volunteered on the technical crew at his church and worked as a tennis instructor at the YMCA.

Heather Proctor of Simpsonville. Her father Dell Proctor works at Mago Construction Company. Heather is pursuing a degree in criminal justice/biology. In high school she was news editor for the Rocket Review. She is also active in the Simpsonville Baptist Church Youth Group.

Quinn Thomas of Bowling Green. His mother Sue Barclay works at Hanson Aggregates Midwest, Inc. Quinn's goal is to earn a bachelor degree in mechanical engineering at Western Kentucky University. He has worked throughout high school. He was on the tennis team and lettered in cross-country.

Bachelor Degree – Sophomore - $1,500.00

Aimee L. Boyd of Louisville. Her father Monty Boyd works at Wayne Supply Company. Aimee's goal is to earn a degree in accounting and a masters of business administration and become a Certified Public Accountant. She has received several honors and awards such as University of Kentucky College of Business and Economics Dean's List, U.S. Navy Scholastic All-American Swimming and Diving Team, All state Field Hockey Team, Who's Who Among American High School Students for 2000 and 2001, Who's Who in Sports All Star for 2001.

Kristen Daugherty of Lebanon. Her father Charles Brady works at Mago Construction Company. Kristen's goal is to earn a degree in biology from Bellarmine University with an emphasis in pre-medicine. She graduated high school with a 4.0 GPA and the Commonwealth Diploma. She was Marion County Junior Miss and Kentucky Junior Miss First Runner-up. She is currently pursuing the title of Miss Kentucky.

Kimberly Gidcumb of Bowling Green. Her father Ernest Marling Long works for Scotty's Contracting & Stone, LLC. She is currently attending Western Kentucky University to be a registered nurse. She has maintained a 4.0 GPA. She is very active at church, being a Sunday school teacher and teaching first graders.

Jared Haynes of Ferguson. His father Butch Ledford works at Hinkle Contracting Corp. Jared's goal is to earn a double major in statistics and economics at Eastern Kentucky University with an emphasis on statistical analysis and sports franchise economics. He has maintained a 3.33 grade point average while working part-time.

Bachelor Degree – Junior - $1,500.00

Joseph Owens of Langley. His father Joe Owens works for Whayne Supply Company. Joseph's goal is to earn a degree in biology and psychology at University of Kentucky. He currently serves as an Arts and Science's Ambassador, a Chem-Excel leader, a volunteer at Shriner's Hospital and an active member in various clubs including pre-med AMSA and Alpha Phi Omega.

Terry Alan Snow of Russell Springs. His father Rodney Snow works at Cumberland Concrete Pipe, Inc. Terry's goal is to earn a degree in civil engineering at the University of Kentucky. His senior year in high school he maintained a 4.0 grade point average resulting in earning the title of Salutatorian. He has had perfect attendance throughout his 12 years of education in the Russell County School System. He currently submits an article to the UK engineering newsletter "The Katalyst," is a member of the UK student American Society of Civil Engineering (ASCE) Chapter, involved in the construction of UK's ASCE concrete canoe for the regional competition. He was elected chapter secretary of the newly formed student chapter of the American Road and Transportation Builders Association.

Jacquelyn Stoess of Crestwood. Her father Barry Stoess works for Rogers Group, Inc. Her goal is to earn a degree in journalism at Western Kentucky University. As part of her internship through the Kentucky Press Association she has worked at The Oldham Era and will be working for the Trimble County Banner. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority and has served as one of four members on the Standards Board. She is currently Philanthropy Chair, responsible for scheduling community service activities and keeping track of the required 20 service hours for each of the 120 members.

Bachelor Degree – Senior - $1,500.00

Christina Howard of Jeffersonville. Christina's father Dawson Howard works for The Walker Company of Kentucky. Christina's goal is to earn a degree in human sciences with a major in dietetics/nutrition at Morehead State University. She is a member of MSU Honor Society (Beta Omicron Chapter of Kappa Omicron Nu), Bluegrass District Dietetic Association, Eastern District Dietetic Association. Community activities include promoting nutrition awareness in the school system and organizes care packages for Christian Social Services. She also volunteers time at the local hospital.