

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
Donald L. Walker
502-223-2379 or 888-234-5272

KENTUCKY CRUSHED STONE ASSOCIATION
ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

FRANKFORT, KY, May 21, 2004 – The Kentucky Crushed Stone Association (KCSA) Scholarship Committee, co-chaired by Chad Swallows, Rinker Materials, Inc., and John Haydon, Nally & Haydon, LLC , recently announced the 2004 Scholarship Award Recipients. The total allocation of $19,750.00 will be distributed to the students during the 2004-2005 school year. KCSA has awarded over $100,000.00 to help deserving students achieve their educational goals since the Scholastic Grant Program began in 1999. Congratulations and good luck to the following students.

Master Degree - $750

Sharon Williams Pipkin of Columbia. Sharon's husband Michael Pipkin works for Gaddie-Shamrock, LLC, Columbia. Sharon is pursuing her Master's Degree in Counseling at Lindsey Wilson College. She is Vice President of Jamestown Descendants Reunion, as well as a member of Kentucky Council of Crime and Delinquency, Southern States Correctional Association, Kentucky Counseling Association and Greens Chapel Baptist Church Youth Leader.

Vocational / Technical School Second Year - $1000

Bradley C Patton of Campton. Bradley's father, Robert Patton, works for Natural Bridge Stone, a division of Hinkle Contracting Corp. in Stanton. Bradley is studying to be a Certified Welder. He plays baseball and attends the Church of Christ.

Associate Degree- First Year - $1,500.00

Justin Moore of Corbin. Justin's father Tim Moore, works for Wayne Supply Company, Corbin. He plays football, baseball and basketball in his spare time. Justin would like to continue to play ball in college.

Associate Degree – Second Year - $1,500.00

Brian Winters of Pleasureville. Brian's father, Eddie Winters is employed with Liter's, Inc at their Lockport Quarry. Brian is pursuing a degree in Business Marketing. He was very active in school sports, team captain of the varsity basketball team and playing on the baseball team for 5 years. He is a member of the FBLA Club and the Beta Club.

-more-

Bachelor Degree – Freshman - $1,500.00

Jeremiah David Frye of New Haven. Jeremiah's father David Frye own's Rock Drilling, LLC, in Bardstown. He will be pursuing a degree in Civil Engineering. Jeremiah was involved with many extracurricular activities while going to Nelson County High School. He is a member of the New Hope Voluntary Fire Department where he was named Recruit of the Year and give the 110% award. As a member of the high school Soccer Team he stays involved with coaching younger players. Jeremiah is also a member of Bardstown – Nelson County Young Leaders and VICA. He plans to attend Campbellsville University in the fall.

Casey Allen Underwood of Lancaster. Casey's mother Peggy Underwood is employed at Caldwell Stone in Danville. He plans to study Communications at Eastern Kentucky University in the fall. Casey is a 5 year member of the Garrard County High School Band and plays in his church praise band. He also is a member of FFA and takes an active role in his church youth group.

Angela M. Haynes of Ferguson. Angela's father, Fred Haynes works for Hinkle Contracting Company in Somerset. In the fall, she will be pursuing a degree in Psychology / Education at the University of Kentucky. She plans to become a school psychologist. Angela is heavily involved in community service and helping a hand. She is a member of Big Brothers/Big Sister, currently President of Teens Who Care, treasurer of the National Honors Society, and a member of DECA and Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Jerrod Jameson Long of Mt. Sterling. Jerrod's father is employed at Atlas Concrete a division of the Walker Company of Kentucky, Mt. Sterling. He is pursuing a degree in Computer Science and Religion. He attends the Gateway Christian Church, plays basketball and baseball as well as being a member of the National Honors Society, Who's Who Among American High School Students, Outstanding Students of America, VICA, National Beta Club and Future Business Leaders of America.

Bachelor Degree – Sophomore - $1,500.00

Samantha Jo Manley of Central City. Her father George Hornsby works at Scotty's Contracting & Stone Co., LLC., Bowling Green. Samantha's goal is to earn a bachelor degree with a major in chemistry or biology with concentration in pre-medicine. She volunteers at Pikeville Methodist Hospital through a summer program. She has dedicated numerous hours to extracurricular activities in the Beta Club and Academic Team, Secretary for FBLA and Math Club. Volunteers as a Junior Achievement Leader to teach 5th graders economics and aided a family for Christmas through the Angel Tree Project. She has also worked a part-time job.

Kayla Triplett of Frankfort. Her father Chuck Triplett works at The Walker Company of Kentucky, Mt. Sterling. Kayla's goal is to earn a bachelor degree in business management/administration. She played basketball and was a member of several clubs and organizations including: Beta Club, National Honor Society, Pep Club, Prom Committee, Who's Who, and the National Honor Roll.

Bachelor Degree – Junior - $1,500.00

Andrea Parson of Columbia. Andrea's father Jeff York works for Gaddie-Shamrock, LLC., Columbia. Andrea's goal is to earn a bachelor degree in elementary education at Western Kentucky University. She hopes to teach a second or third grade class. She is very active at church, being a Sunday school teacher.

Brian Runyan of Louisville. His father Donald Runyan works for Kosmos Cement Company, Louisville. Brian is pursuing a degree in Mathematics from Bellarmine University. He plays basketball for the University as well as being President of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and involved in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program.

Bachelor Degree – Senior - $1,500.00

Jared T. Haynes of Ferguson. His father Fred Haynes works for Hinkle Contracting Corp., Paris. Fred's goal is to earn a degree in statistics at Eastern Kentucky University. He has maintained a 3.24 GPA and been involved with Crusaders for Christ, attending meetings and worship services through Bible Study, Outreach Team, Discipleship Team, and Colonels Who Care Community Outreach Service. In addition he has focused on activities that will help him excel in his statistics major and a future career by being President of the Statistics Club and Senior Senator in ECU's Student Government. Jared is currently working for Osram Sylvania in Winchester as a Logistics Specialist through the ECU co-op program.

Jonathan S Milby of Greensburg. His father Gary Milby works for Gaddie-Shamrock, Columbia. Jonathan is currently pursuing a Bachelor's Degree of Science in English from the University of Kentucky. He is involved in intramural football and basketball as well as the webmaster of JAR Literary Magazine. In Jonathan's "spare time" he works two part-time jobs to cover his expenses and still has made the Dean's List three times.

The Kentucky Crushed Stone Association, based in Frankfort, represents over 100 aggregate producers and related manufacturers and service companies statewide. Last year more than 72 million tons of aggregate products were produced in Kentucky at a value of more than $356 million, thus generating jobs and revenue for the Commonwealth.

###

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.